Editorial Review

Assalamu 'alaikum wr.wb.

Dear readers of the Jurnal Kreano,

Kreano, Jurnal Matematika Kreatif-Inovatif, Volume 11 (2), December 2020 is here to greet loyal readers, academics who have a young spirit in serving, storing, criticizing, and providing solutions to every phenomenon that occurs in learning mathematics through steps the scientific.

The Covid-19 pandemic is a blessing space for lecturers, teachers, and students in developing their ideas through the use of approaches, methods, and policies in practical learning so as to produce attractive offers. Many articles received by the editorial staff reflect the diversity of ideas and learning practices that have been implemented in each educational unit, both by lecturers, teachers, and students.

Through various considerations, the editorial team presented 15 articles as a basis for further research development. In particular, the editor gave an award to Nurfaidah et al, for their participation in improving the quality of learning for special children. Kusumaningrum's research during a pandemic period can also pave the way for further research to be carried out. Interesting research results can be read in the article.

We hope that the quality of national education continues to improve in line with the new policies issued by the government and the academic climate. Hopefully the Kreano Journal together with article writers and readers can be part of the process of improving the quality of national education.

Happy reading!

Wassalamu 'alaikum wr.wb.
